

WOLF Classic Cabinets

A Classic in the Making.

Whether your kitchen is the perpetually busy hub of your home, the occasional stage for enjoyable entertaining, or simply a place for preparing the family meals, count on WOLF Classic Cabinets to add the style you want and the functionality you need.

Our cabinets are meticulously handcrafted right here in the United States from solid American Maple and premium plywoods. Available looks range from rich, deep-glazed stains to unadorned, traditional Shaker. Choose from our array of premium-quality drawer components, and the result is a classic kitchen you're sure to love for years to come.

Design your own classic kitchen. It all starts with WOLF Classic Cabinets.

With WOLF Classic Cabinets, you'll never find yourself having to sacrifice functionality for good looks, or durability for great value. And our storage solutions — available in any of our door styles — give you the tools you need to design your kitchen space around the way you really live.

Proudly made in the U.S.A. and crafted from hand-selected American Maple, our cabinets are manufactured for durability with high-quality plywood and solid wood elements. You won't find cams, brackets or clips in a WOLF Classic Cabinet, but you will notice the dovetailed drawers and superior drawer glides and hinges.

As attractive as it is strong, each of our cabinets has a finish applied using the latest technology to ensure a smooth, even look and beauty that will last.

Finally, you'll appreciate our industry-leading Five-Year Limited

Warranty backed by our reputation for quality and satisfaction since 1843.

Quality is in the Details

Constructed from high end, real wood components and assembled with long-lasting durability in mind, our cabinets exceed the standards set by similarly priced products. WOLF Classic Cabinets boast full 1/2" all-plywood construction, solid wood dovetailed drawers, premium drawer and door hardware and 3/4" plywood shelves. Plus, must-have features, including a selection of moulding, popular cabinet configurations and accessories, are all standard features of WOLF Classic Cabinets.

In addition to being certified with the Kitchen Cabinet Manufacturers Association (KCMA), our products also meet the goals of the KCMA's Environmental Stewardship Program. Participants in this program are held to strict requirements in support of responsible forest management promoting sustainability and long-term economic and environmental benefit. These responsibilities include recycling saw dust and using low VOC finishes and CARB-approved plywood.
